PREPARING FOR COVID-19 UPDATED: Statement from Obsidian Theatre

Saturday, March 14, 2020

Obsidian Theatre is committed to the health, safety and well-being of our artists, audiences and our employees.

Due to the unprecedented and escalating circumstances surrounding COVID-19, Obsidian Theatre has made the decision to cancel the upcoming production of Blacktop Sky, which was set to begin previews on March 24th.

We'd like to thank all of the artists who have worked on the production and dedicated their time and artistic craft to bringing this show to the stage.

At this time we are focused on notifying our community, and supporting all the artists involved. If you are a ticket holder we ask for your patience as we work with our partners at Crow's Theatre on next steps.
